When You Consider Your Future Consider the Gillette

A PPEARANCES count for a lot these days—and it is the well-groomed man that has the call.

The fact that so many successful men have adopted the Gillette shave should interest you. Not that the Gillette alone will make a man successful, but when time counts for so much, the efficiency of the Gillette shave appeals to the man intent on doing things. No stopping, no honing—and the Gillette shave is always quick, clean, cool, velvet smooth.

Gillette Safety Razors sell from $5.00 to $50.00 and you can always get fresh blades at your dealer's, 50 cents and $1.00 the packet.

The ROSENBAUM SCHOOL NEW HAVEN CONNECTICUT

ANNOUNCES

After October 1, 1916, the School will be situated at Milford, Connecticut, nine miles from New Haven, where boys will be received any time during the year.

Professors B. W. McFarland and E. L. Durfee will be permanently identified with the School as the heads of the departments of Science and History, respectively. Professor McFarland was formerly Principal of the New Haven High School and a member of the College Entrance Board. Professor Durfee has been instructor in Yale College since 1903, and a member of the Committee on Admission.

Summer Session

As heretofore, a complete corps of tutors will be maintained in New Haven for those men who are candidates for the Fall examinations. Last year, out of a total of 145 men prepared, none failed to enter.

Requests for catalog should be addressed to the School at 262 York Street, New Haven.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY

ANDOVER MASSACHUSETTS

FOUNDED at Andover, Mass., 1778, by the gifts of Hon. Samuel Phillips and his uncle, Hon. John Phillips. Others have added to the original foundations by endowments of several kinds, and various scholarships have been established. The total endowment is $1,262,000.

¶ Phillips Academy has established very high repute for its broad scholarship, for its elevated ideals, and especially for the practical success which has been obtained by its students.

¶ In all the leading professions and every useful avenue of endeavor, its alumni are found among leaders. In all the great colleges, and particularly Yale and Harvard, the graduates of this Academy have for years been distinguished for their thoroughness of preparation and success in their college work. The academy has also done a useful work in the education of boys who have not gone to college. Especially is it distinguished for its American, democratic spirit, the sons of the wealthiest men in the country mingling with boys who are working their way through school.

¶ The courses of the Academy have thoroughly adjusted and adapted themselves to the highest collegiate requirements. The ability of its faculty, the excellence of its equipment, its library and laboratory facilities, the prestige of honorable history and other advantages and achievements have placed Phillips Academy in the front rank of American schools.

IN editing this THE TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL POT POURRI and CLASS BOOK, the editors sincerely hope that the ensuing pages may serve to keep fresh in our minds through the years to come the memory of friendships formed, of honors gained, and tasks well done. Above all, may they serve to keep alive in our hearts that same unselfish spirit of service to some great ideal which is instilled in us here by our instructors, by the example of nearly one hundred and fifty preceding classes, and by that general atmosphere which surrounds all those attending Phillips Academy.

We hope that those at whom our grinds are aimed will take them in good spirit.

In closing, we wish to extend our hearty thanks to those who have helped us in our task of compiling the records of the Class of 1916.

Class History

The Junior Year

THE fall of 1913 marked the entrance, without brass bands or noise of any kind, of the class of 1916. In fact, we were given to understand from "the men higher up" that it was our sacred duty to refrain from all unnecessary hubbub, and to keep ourselves in strict seclusion. In spite of our efforts to follow these stern orders and efface ourselves as much as possible, we were the recipients of several thoughtful invitations to parties at which we were the only entertainers. These occasions, however, became scarcer and scarcer, and we were able to claim a few of our rights and stop eating our meals off the mantelpiece.

We soon forgot all about our troubles in the joy of seeing Exeter whipped in football for the eighth consecutive time, by the score of 7 to 0. Although 1916 was not represented on the winning team, we cheered as frantically as any one when "Stew" Buckle romped across the line for the only touchdown of the game.

On the swimming team, which won almost everything during the season, we were represented by Maurice Gould.

After a 48 to 48 tie with Exeter in track, we were all looking forward to a victory in baseball, but were doomed to disappointment, as the team went down to defeat by the score of 5 to 4 in a hotly contested game.

After one year in Andover we felt like new men. No longer did we slink warily into chapel in fear of being invited to spend the evening away from home, but we walked in with the best of them and looked forward to sending out the invitations ourselves the following year.

C. M. DRAKE.

The Lower Middle Year

CONSIDERING ourselves as old men in Andover, we began our second year with confidence and hope. The first event of importance took place on October 11, when we honored the founders of our school by the celebration of "Founders' Day." The death of Melville C. Day, which occurred during the first part of the year, brought grief to us all. We shall never forget what he did for the school.

All interest was soon centered around football. The team, led by Captain Murray, after a preliminary season full of ups and downs was finally defeated by Exeter on November 7. It was our first defeat in the long period of nine years. Nineteen sixteen was represented by Gould, Weston, Sanborn and Ashley. The soccer team, led by "Tommy Lee," defeated all comers.

The winter term presented new activities. The swimming team was the best Andover has ever seen. Our men went through the season undefeated in a series of meets that were of the greatest interest. During Easter vacation the relay team won the title of "Interscholastic Champions." Hockey practice was delayed on account of poor ice, and later on we were defeated by Exeter in the Boston Arena. Towards the end of the term the Dramatic Club rendered "Sowing Wild Oats" in the town hall, and, soon after, a joint concert with Exeter was given by the Musical Clubs.

We were glad to get back after Easter and enjoy the pleasantest term of the school year. The track team, under Captain Rodman, was defeated by Exeter in the dual meet on Memorial Day, but the team came back victoriously and won the Harvard Interscholastics by outpointing our rivals. With eight veterans back, we all looked for a victory in baseball, but luck was against us.

Thus closed a year which ought to be considered one of the most enjoyable and profitable of our whole school course.

CHARLES L. FAHERTY.

The Upper Middle Year

THE fall of 1914 found us back on the old "hill" again ready to do our part in making our third year as big a success as possible. During the summer we had lost a few of our former classmates, but their places were filled by the many new faces, which we heartily welcomed to our midst.

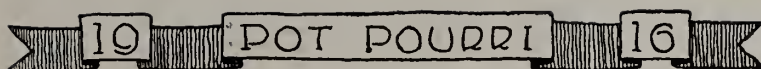

The football team, under the leadership of Captain Avery and the management of W. C. Chisholm, soon began its preliminary season with a 7 to 0 victory over Cushing Academy. The rest of the record, however, was not quite so successful, and on November 14 we were defeated by Exeter. The score of this game, however, falls far short of telling the true story of the contest, for our men, matched against an overwhelmingly superior aggregation, fought untiringly and proved that the old fighting spirit of Andover is always present, whether it be in defeat or victory. Ashley, Burnham, Conway, Fitzgerald, Gleason, Keith, McManus, Merrick, Sanborn, Thomas and Thompson represented 1916 on the team.

The soccer team had a very successful season, winning the majority of its games. The members from our class were Gamble, Huang, Ingram and Thompson. We were represented on the cross-country team by Dudley. Just before the end of the term, on December 8, the interior of Bartlet Hall, one of the oldest buildings on the "hill," was destroyed by fire. Fortunately, however, there were no serious accidents, and much of the furniture and other personal property of the occupants was saved by the students. Work was immediately begun on remodeling the structure, and it was opened for occupancy, "bigger and better than ever," a couple of weeks before school closed in the spring.

Probably the most important event of the winter term was the defeat which our relay team administered to Exeter at the B. A. A. games on February 6. This started what proved to be one of the most successful track seasons Andover has ever had. We were represented by J. P. Charlton, Jr.

The hockey team was handicapped by poor ice throughout the season, and, on a rink covered with water, was defeated by Exeter in a hard-fought game. Captain Ashley, Walthew and Williams represented our class.

Coach Sutherland turned out his usual winning swimming team which went through an undefeated season. Nineteen sixteen was represented by Captain Fitzgerald, Gould, Kingsbury, Mayer, Peters, Searle, Strout and Tilton.

The Musical Clubs gave their usual number of concerts, the final one being the combined concert with Exeter on March 13. Bartlet, Thompson, Scheide, Holden, Walsh, Clark, Kingsbury, English, Williams and Whitworth represented our class.

On the night of February 22 we gave our annual Promenade in the Borden Gymnasium. The committee consisted of Harrower (Chairman), Gleason, Weber, Sanborn and Hanes.

The Dramatic Club gave a very excellent performance of "The Bells" in the Town Hall on March 19.

The spring term was greeted with joy, as usual. The track team, under the splendid leadership of Captain Prescott and management of Lennon, entered upon a most successful season. After defeating its rivals during the preliminary season with overwhelming scores, it was victorious over Exeter on May 31 with the score of 54 to 41. The remarkable quality of Sid Peet's charges was shown by the fact that two records were broken and a third equaled at this meet.

The baseball team had a fairly successful preliminary season, but was defeated by Exeter on June 5. Nineteen sixteen was represented by Swan, Ashley, Faherty and Gordon on the team.

During the year we won our numerals in soccer, baseball and track.

Our attention was now turned toward "make-ups" and exams, and, with these over, we left for vacation with only one more year ours at Andover.

H. P. HARROWER.

The Senior Year

AS we came back this year, quite naturally our attention was first turned to the football practice on Brothers' Field. There we found Captain Gleason and Mr. Lillard working hard with a great scarcity of "A" men and a large amount of green material. The preliminary games seemed promising, but the Exeter aggregation showed us that they were our superiors on the gridiron. That victory was clean cut and well deserved. The soccer team had a very successful season under the leadership of Captain Thompson. On both the football and soccer teams 1916 was well represented and we feel that the loss of the dignified Seniors will be felt next year in these two sports.

On the annual Founders' Day in October the Peabody House was dedicated. The Grill was moved from the Archæology Building to the much more commodious quarters in the basement of the new structure. The Reading Room also was brought to the first floor of this same building, while the second floor is used for student and faculty meetings. The building has proved to be a great success and promises to bring the students more and more together.

With winter came the hockey and swimming teams. Both made very creditable showings. The Combined Musical Clubs gave concerts at Rogers Hall, and at Lawrence, and ended their season with a very successful joint concert with Exeter in the Town Hall. The Junior Prom was certainly a credit to the class of 1917 and we are glad to see that such men will be ready to take our places next fall. The new Peabody House gave the school an excellent chance to hold afternoon dances. Under the management of the Peabody Assembly Committee, dances were held every two weeks during the winter term.

Our new baseball and track coaches, Mr. Quinby and Mr. Blanchard, respectively, have certainly taken hold of their work in earnest. All during the winter the candidates for both teams have been at work in the gym, and we cannot help feeling that these two sports will have successful seasons in the spring. Both teams are working hard and, although we did not have a football celebration, we are looking forward ———.

In general, the school spirit has been good this year. The new men have entered into the Andover atmosphere in the proper way, and we feel sure that we have classes below us that will uphold the traditions of the school as they should be upheld.

June will see the end of our career at Andover. We hope that we have been an Andover class. We glance back on the days spent here with regret that they are past, but we hold our heads high as we look ahead, for we feel that Andover has made us broader and better men, and that the old school has given us a training with which we can meet the hard knocks of the world with a smile and a square jaw.

MUSICAL

Musicals

THE first concert by the Combined Musical Clubs was given at Rogers Hall on Saturday, December 4. A selection rendered by the combined Mandolin Clubs of Rogers Hall and Phillips Academy was both a surprise and a pleasant feature of the concert. A supper, followed by a dance, concluded the evening's entertainment.

On January 29, in reciprocation for the cordial entertainment which has always been accorded the Andover Musical Clubs by the girls of Rogers Hall, a reception was held in the Peabody House. Dancing during the afternoon was followed by a supper at which an orchestra composed of members of the clubs played. The dancing was resumed until eight o'clock, when the Rogers Hall girls returned to Lowell in the car.

A concert was given on February 24 at the Young Men's Christian Association Building in Lawrence, where the clubs were most heartily welcomed.

The Mandolin Club took part in an entertainment at St. Michael's Hall, Lawrence, on March 5, and proved to be one of the most successful features of the evening.

The Ninth Annual Andover-Exeter Concert was held in Andover on Saturday evening, March 11, at the Town Hall. An innovation in the form of a number rendered by the combined Mandolin Clubs of Exeter and Andover, together with the excellent quality of all the clubs, caused the concert to be received with greater enthusiasm than ever before.

Society of Inquiry

Society of Inquiry

THE Society of Inquiry has throughout the school year aimed to establish and strengthen ideals of Christianity in the hearts and minds of the students here at Andover. It has tried to enlarge their outlook on the different phases of the Christian life in our own country, as well as on those which exist in the mission fields throughout the world.

Inquiry has adopted various methods for carrying out this purpose. One meeting a month has been devoted to the students for the discussion of conditions of life existing here at school. The results of this scheme, in most instances, have been very gratifying. The remaining meetings were addressed by members of the faculty, by men from other schools and colleges, by missionaries and by ministers, all of whom talked very interestingly of their experiences in the various branches of work to which they have devoted themselves.

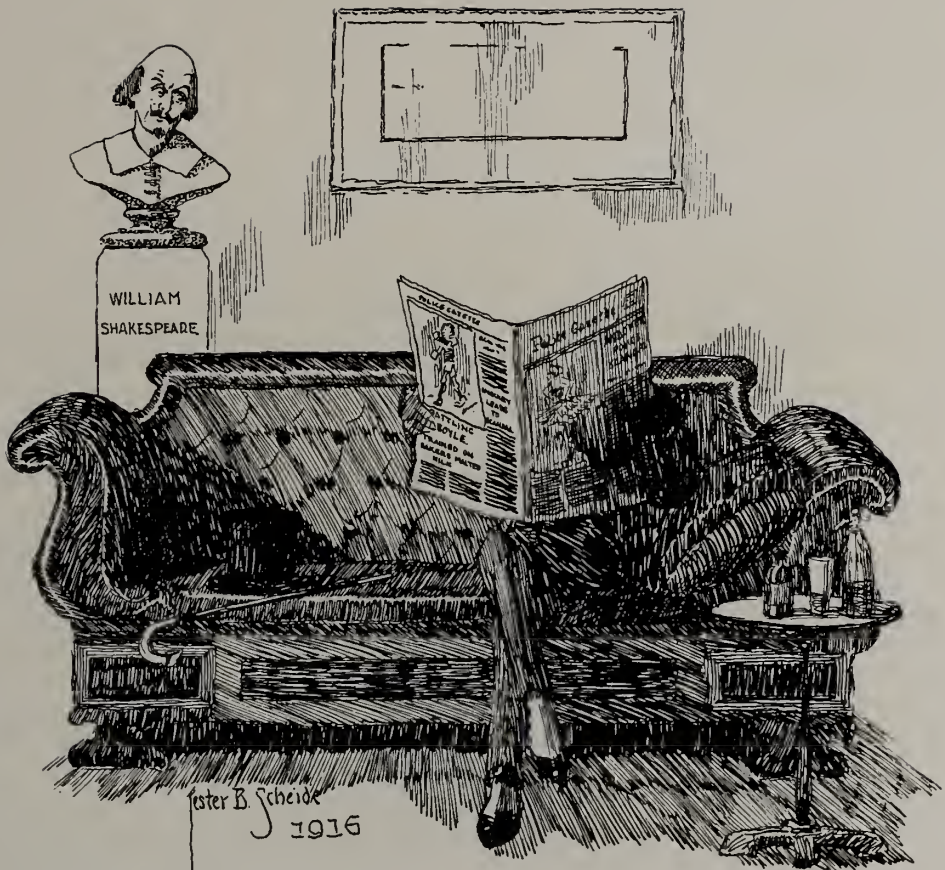

Under the auspices of the Society of Inquiry the work among the foreigners in Lawrence was continued. With Mr. Quinby at its head, this activity has been carried on with exceptionally good results.

During the winter the Bible Study Groups were again organized and were very well attended throughout the term, in spite of the fact that attendance was not compulsory. This year five groups were led by members of the faculty, and two by students.

Andover was well represented at the Northfield Student Conference by a group of twenty-one men, and the largest preparatory school delegation. The influence of Northfield has been keenly felt in the Christian activities that the Society of Inquiry has attempted to carry out during the school year. The delegation was composed of: F. Kingsbury, A. Clark, C. W. Gleason, P. R. Doolin, M. Heard, Lu, W. Russell, D. P. Hatch, A. Coley, E. Speer, R. F. Shedden, T. Kingsbury, Touey, R. Crumb, A. Davidson, R. T. Sears, Allen, R. Bushnell, W. C. Chisholm, D. Randall, Warren, Garrigues.

It is hoped by all those interested in Inquiry that the Christian life and all things that emanate from it may have been brought more nearly home to the students, and that some practical good may have been accomplished through the various branches of work carried on by the society.

Literary

THE fall of 1912 saw the entrance into Phillips Academy of the Class of 1916. It seems that each member of it had resolved deep down in his heart to have absolutely nothing to do with the literary activities of the school. To this resolution the Class of 1916 strictly adhered during the Junior year, and as a result was not represented in any literary activity.

The class returned in 1913, however, with the memory of this resolution almost wiped out, and during the ensuing school year several members succeeded in attaining many positions of honor. Lester Scheide was an Art Editor of the POT POURRI. On the Phillipian Board Paul Abbott and Hollis Alden were the representatives. Homer Conroy was on the Dramatic Club, and Elliott Speer was on the Debating Team.

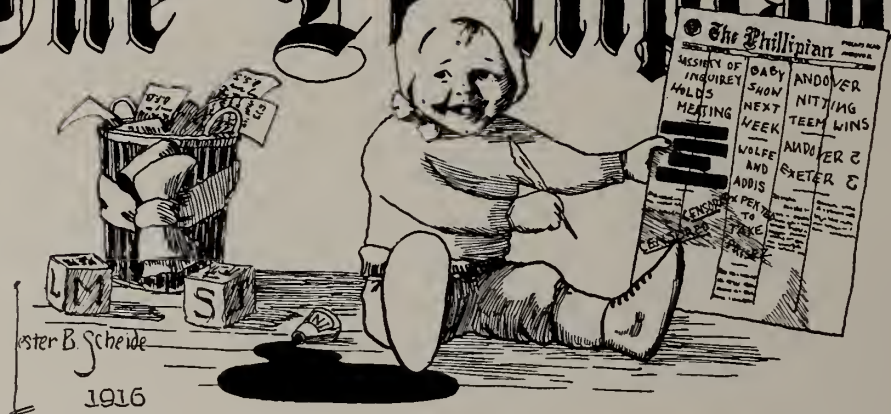

Now that some of the members of the class had ventured into the limelight, others became more bold, and so, during the school year 1914-1915, every literary board could boast of having added the name of at least one member of the Class of 1916 to its number. H. P. Harrower was Business Manager of the Phillipian, and Paul Abbott, Hollis Alden, Ralph Hanes, Charlie Gamble, Elliott Speer and John Crosby were on the Board. Raymond Beardsley was Managing Editor of the Mirror, and Richard Bassett and Lester Scheide were on the Board. In the Dramatic Club 1916 was represented by three of its members: Cadmus Gordon, Maurice Gould and Rufus Stevens. Two of the five men composing the POT POURRI Board were also of the Class of 1916: Paul Abbott, Assistant Managing Editor, and Lester Scheide again an Art Editor. Paul Doolin was on the Debating Team, which defeated Exeter, and Raymond Beardsley won one of the Means prizes.

For every class, the Senior year is the most propitious, and the Class of 1916 was no exception to that rule. Paul Abbott was Managing Editor of the POT POURRI, and Lester Scheide was Art Editor. The Phillipian Board was almost wholly made up of Seniors: Ralph Hanes was Managing Editor; O. M. Mitchel was Business Manager; and Paul Abbott, Charlie Gamble, Elliott Speer, John Crosby, Gerard English, H. P. Harrower and William Barber were on the Board. Richard Bassett, who won first place, Paul Doolin, who was second, Lawrence Beilenson who was third, and John Sharpe, Edward Harden, Robert Williamson and Harold McEldowney competed for the Means prize. On the Dramatic Club 1916 was represented by Clarence Garrigues, Berthold Katten, Homer Conroy, Cadmus Gordon and Hiram Blauvelt. Raymond Beardsley was Managing Editor of the Mirror and Richard Bassett, Lester Scheide and Charles Drake were on the Board.

From these statistics it may be readily seen that the Class of 1916 has been remarkably active in the literary interests of the school, and that it has left behind a record of which both the school and the class may well be proud.

ATHLETICS

1915 - 1916

Athletics

EVERY school in its athletics has its periods of successes and its periods of defeats. The class which goes through school during the slumping period is unfortunate, but, even if its share be defeat, it is not disgraced unless it allows its spirit, fight and determination to decline in the same proportion.

We entered Andover in the fall of 1912, and saw Captain Gault's team defeat Exeter in the ninth straight football victory over our rivals from New Hampshire. Budde alone was from 1916. A mild winter did away with hockey, while basketball was abolished. The swimming team, with M. S. Gould as our only representative, had a fine record with "Jimmy" Gould as captain.

Spring brought us our first two bitter disappointments. "Jack" Wiley's baseball team was defeated by Exeter 5 to 4, while the track team, with "Stew" Crary as captain, tied Exeter 48 to 48.

During our Junior Middle year the bottom seemed to drop right out of athletics. The first crash came with the 59 to 0 defeat of Captain Murray's team in football at the hands of Exeter. Budde, Weston, Ashley, Callahan and Gould were our class's quota. The hockey team, under the leadership of Bob Paradise, was defeated in the first game ever played between the schools in that sport 4 to 1. We were represented by Ashley and Bruch. With "Babe" Allen as captain, the swimming team was very successful, the relay team incidentally establishing a world's record. Hopkins and Fitzgerald were men from 1916. During the winter term a wrestling team was organized, and "Mac" Baldrige as captain led his team through a series of successful meets. Kennedy was our only representative. But the successes of the two minor teams were but flashes in the pan. In the spring Captain Rodman's track team was defeated 59 to 37 by Exeter. On this team we had Sid Gould and Swift. Captain Swett's baseball team also bowed to defeat, the score being 7 to 0. Faherty was the sole member from 1916. We were at least doing better.

The opening event of our Middle year was not auspicious. Captain Avery's team lost in football to Exeter 78 to 7. Ashley, Merrick, McManus, Fitzgerald, Gleason, Burnham, Keith, Sanborn, Thomas, Thompson and Gould were from the class of 1916. But again the swimming team proved the break in the cloudy sky, having a brilliant season. Besides Captain Fitzgerald, 1916 had Peters, Searle,

19 POT POURRI 16

Tilton, F. Kingsbury, Stout, M. S. Gould and Mayer on the team. The hockey season was short on account of the lack of ice, but the Exeter game was played, in which affair we lost 5 to 0. Ashley, of 1916, was captain. In addition, we had Walthew and Williams. For the first time in five years a relay was held between Exeter and Andover, resulting in a thrilling victory for our team. Charlton was our man. The wrestling team, with Captain Basso of 1916 at the helm, did fairly well. Thomas and Krieger also represented us. The track meet with Exeter was a "record breaker." Confident of victory, Exeter went down to defeat 54 to 41. Captain Prescott broke the record for the 220, Rodman the 120-yard, high hurdle record. On the team we had Bowman, Charlton and Swift. In our final contest for the year with Exeter, that of baseball, we threw chance after chance away and lost 10 to 3. Three men from 1916 were on the team: Ashley, Faherty and Gordon. The year closed with 1916 doing more than her share.

Then after the summer vacation we returned for our Senior year, our last year. To make it the best ever, we were determined. The football team lost 37 to 7. Ashley, Keith, Charlton, Walthew, Rothchild and Wanamaker were 1916's representatives. The swimming team, although doing quite well, did not come up to past seasons' records. Captain Searle, Kingsbury, M. S. Gould and Tilton were from the Senior class. The hockey team lost to Exeter 3 to 0 in a hard-fought game. We had Hubbard, Jones and Mitchell on it. Bill Russell's wrestling team did fairly well. The relay team lost to Exeter. The track and baseball teams just now are problematical.

Now is hardly the time to look back over our shoulders, for the race is yet to be won and we are coming into the home stretch; but we may be permitted to risk it. Numerous victories have not been ours, but we know that it will not be long now before the pendulum swings back and we take the lead again, for it is the steady, swinging stride and fighting spirit which win over the sporadic spirit.

We are satisfied, for we have done our best and left Andover in a condition ripe for pending victory.

* As no one on this Board or in School, as far as we (editorially speaking) could discover, felt able to follow the precepts of Professor Baker of Harvard sufficiently to write the play which, as one, would naturally suppose would follow the above program, we are forced to submit a list of those whom we think should be given honorable mention for a year of faithful service to the gentler sex.

“Anybody Would Have Done It”

A one-word musical comedy in two acts

CAST

She.....IMA NOTHER
He.....G. WHATA HUSK

FAMOUS PALM OLIVE BEAUTY CHORUS

ACT I

Scene: A lonely spot at Palm Beach.

Time: 3.30 on a hot May day.

Chorus, clad in purple and gold bathing suits, sing: “Down Among the Sheltering Palms.”

SHE ('way out in the briny): “Help!”

HE (on the beach): “What?”

“Help!”

“Who?”

“Me!”

“Why?”

“Drowning!”

“Really?” (Chorus sings gems from “Nobody Home.”)

“Quick!”

(Really roused): “Coming!”

Chorus of palm trees sings: “Mother, May I Go in to Swim?”

He rushes into the surf and breasts the waves swimmingly.

HE: “Coming.”

She can't, much to her own mortification, get in the last word and goes down for the third time. His powerful Australian crawl brings him quickly to the spot where she went down. A cake of “99 $\frac{4}{10}$ pure” shows him the place, and, while a bulrush whistles “'Way Down Under the Sea,” he dives, grasps her gently but firmly by the hair, and tows her ashore. He stands looking anxiously at her. The curtain falls as a chorus of Carnegie Medals sings: “A Man Is a Hero.”

ACT II

Scene: Same.

Time: Three minutes later.

HE (accompanied by chorus dressed as beach chairs) sings: “Out of a City of Six Million People, Why did you Pick on Me?”

She shows signs of life, and opens her eyes.

SHE (with a gasp): "Oh!"

HE: "Better?"

"Oh!"

"Whiskey?"

"No!"

"Well?"

"You—"

"Yes."

"Saved—"

"Oh!"

(Insistently): "Me."

(Modestly): "Anybody—"

(Soulfully): "Wonderful!"

"Would—"

"Brave!"

(Not to be daunted): "Have—"

"Heroic!"

He gives up and looks at her steadily. The result is poor for his peace of mind.

In short, he falls hard.

HE (again): "Anybody—"

SHE (with an air of finality): "No!"

He walks down the beach singing, "I'm Simply Crazy Over You." She gives a sly beam of satisfaction and waits. He comes back, sits down near her, and takes her hand.

HE (courageously): "Marry?"

SHE (with a quick breath): "What?"

(More courageously): "Me."

Of course, if the truth were known, this is why she inhaled so much water, but she puts him off. "Wait!" (She ponders deeply).

HE sings: "It is an Awful Thing To Not Know Where You Are."

HE (most courageously): "Well?"

SHE (yieldingly): "Yes."

He opens up parasol which is conveniently near and puts it in place. (You've seen the pictures.) Chorus of Sand Dunes sings: "A Little Bit of Heaven."

CLASSICAL STUDENT: "Did your watch stop going when it fell on the sidewalk?"

PHYSICS STUDENT: "Of course it did! Did you think it would go through?"

STUDENT: "What sent poor Jack to an insane asylum?"

BILL: "A train of thought passed through his brain and wrecked it."

FIELD (after having run over dog when in Cadillac): "Madam, I will replace the animal."

IRATE LADY: "Sir, you flatter yourself."

SEPTEMBER 17 AT 7.45

PREP.: "Why is this bell ringing?"

WELLER: "Can't you see, it is because I'm pulling the rope?"

ON THE SEVEN-OF CAR

STUDENT: "Can't you go any faster than this?"

CONDUCTOR: "Yes, but I have to stay with my car."

MR. BOYCE: "About how much water would an ordinary boiler hold?"

BRAYTON: "Oh, just enough to fill it."

IN THE GRILL

JIM: "How old is that lamp, Jack?"

JACK: "Oh, about three years."

JIM: "Turn it down, it is too young to smoke."

MR. GRAHAM: "How was iron discovered?"

HEMINGWAY: "I heard some one say that they smelt it."

STRAY BULLETS

Let's talk graves, worms, and epitaphs	After the rating
Exceedingly well read	The Mirror
I would 'twere bedtime, and all well	All Clark
He reads much	Beardsley
Their candles are all out	At 9.30 in Williams Hall
Indeed, my lord, it is a most absolute and excellent horse	An Interlinear
It will discourse most eloquent music	The Choir
O good, gray head which all men know	Mr. McCurdy
I find the medicine worse than the malady	At the Infirmary
I am tied to the stake, and I must stand the course
Our thoughts on English History
Can we ever have too much of a good thing?	The Proms
There is another and better world	College
Be ye all of one mind?	At Philo
It's most enough to make a deacon swear	E+ on exams.
Fill all thy bones with aches	In gym class
We would, and we could not	Pass the rating
We have some salt of our youth in us	1919
Seven hundred pounds and possibilities are good gifts	Addis
He is of a very melancholy disposition	Page
One pinch, a hungry, lean-faced villain, a mere anatomy	Wolfe
O, with what authority and show of truth, can cunning sin cover itself withal	Explaining cons.
A lion among ladies is a most dreadful thing	Elliott Speer
What fools these mortals be!	Cross-country runners
With bag and baggage	June 24
Base is the slave that pays	Swimming pool pledges
He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh	The Faculty
A slumber did my spirit steal	In Sunday Chapel
Consider it not so deeply	Batchelder
O goodly is our heritage!	All Andover men
What bloody man is that?	Meredith

19 POT POURRI 16

We were dreamers, dreaming greatly	Before the rating
Hear, is our speech so crude?	At Philo
Is it possible, my lord?	Clear of cons.
How silent is this town	After eight o'clock(?)
I know his gait	Batchelder
Soft! Who comes here?	Mr. Bangs
Tush, never tell me	Barber
His worthiness doth challenge much respect	Gould, Harrower, Hanes, etc.
Is this a holiday?	Founders' Day
Thirty singing seamen	The Choir

GLEASON: "Gee, but I'd like to be a census."

WOLFE: "Why?"

GLEASON: "It embraces forty-eight million women."

SID. GOULD (discussing the football team): "You know young Barber? Well, he is going to be our best man before long."

SHE: "Oh, Sidney, what a nice way to propose to me!"

GELLATLY: "I see the English have captured fifty cannon at the Dardanelles."

S. JONES: "Turkish Trophies, eh?"

CHOIR ASPIRANT: "I'm never happy unless I'm breaking into song."

MR. PFATTEICHER (after the trial): "Why don't you get the key and you won't need to break in."

MR. POYNTER: "Charlton, how long did you spend on this lesson?"

CHARLTON: "About two hours, railroad time."

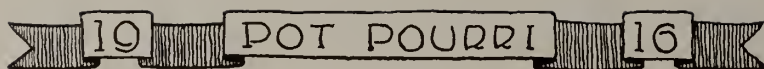

MR. POYNTER: "What do you mean by railroad time?"

CHARLTON: "Including stops and delays."

WOLFE: "Doctor, may I be excused from cross-country today? I have a stomach ache."

DR. PAGE: "How did you get it?"

WOLFE: "By accident."

In the fall: "School meeting for old men only."

Exit Mr. McCurdy.

MR. BENNER: "What is that awful riot in the next room?"

GAMBLE: "Oh, that isn't a riot. It is just Mr. Hudson's Ancient History class."

DR. FUESS: "Gould, correct this sentence: 'It seemed like he had buried his religion in the grave of his wife.'"

GOULD (after long pause): "It seemed like he had buried his religion in his wife's grave."

PROFESSOR FORBES: "In India the fakirs anoint themselves with a kind of oil which enables them to put their hands in fire without injury."

HAPGOOD: "Where do you get that stuff?"

MR. BOYCE: "What would be the difference between Caruso's singing this note and my singing it?"

BATCHELDER: "$2000."

IN BISHOP HALL

Does the second student flatter himself?

CHARLEY: "Oh, that's all right, it isn't hot."

PREP.: "Does this car go by Bishop Hall?"
CONDUCTOR: "No, you idiot, it goes by electricity."

McLANAHAN (to Mr. Lynde): "Can I be justly blamed for something I have not done?"

MR. LYNDE: "Of course not."

McLANAHAN: "Well, I haven't done my geometry for today."

ADDITIONS TO AMERICA'S HALL OF FAME

LAYDEEZE and Gentilmun! Owing to the war in Europe and the high price of shoes and buttermilk in Siam, we are able to exhibit to the vulgar multitude this unrivaled aggregation of flora and fauna. (Hush! Flora has skipped to Boston, so we can only show the fauna.) This way please!

Passing by the Father of His Country, Abraham Lincoln, as well as Messers Daniels and Bryan, we now have on our right, playfully disporting himself in joyous mood, "Hendrick" the baby elephant, the pet of all the children. Harrowed by "Hords" of gnats, he "Gambles" in the "Waters" of his pool. His favorite food is "Salome Meat," a taste he acquired in Greece.

It is perfectly obvious, is it not, that this is the Vespertilio Noctuula, who flits about at night nipping the unwary?

There, little girl, don't cry! — the sweet and mellow notes of our tin-lunged calliope, played by the master hand of the great composer! As a youth he trained choirs and choral societies and gave lessons on the harmonica.

On our left we have the lofty geeraffe, presented by the Governor's daughter. His favorite amusement is a weekly peregrination to Boston (and return). The tall and willowy geeraffe is the special favorite of the laydeeze.

And now, splashing in the champagne, you see "Father Æneas" the manatee, a gregarious aquatic mammal of the order Sirenia, subsisting solely on algæ and such other littoral vegetation as is to be found in Virgil's "Æneid."

Here we have, stretched out all doubled up on the floor of his cage, "Alexis" the feerocious "Wolfe" donated by the Russian Czar and the Duchess of Omaha. Next to onions, his favorite fruit is a tasty bite of Gleason. He once ate Charleton whole.

Stand back, Laydeeze! This is Mephitis Mephitica. It is a nocturnal carnivorous mammal which is especially fond of poultry. In the pursuit of young roosters it has been known to penetrate locked and bolted doors — hence the name "Houdini," the joy of those who go out at night.

Hold your hats, Gents! Here comes the famous pacing ostrich "Batch." This bird has swallowed the dictionary, knows the classics by heart, and dines with great gusto on Latin constructions.

And now we have, barking silently, "Bugs," the Mexican Hairless Pot-hound, slim pickings for the flea, to be sure. This bounding bow-wow has his faults. He can't be broken of chasing the chickens.

Well anyway, you have no complaint; this came free with the rest of the book, except for a slight charge for the privilege of meeting Messers Daniels and Bryan in the first instalment.

HOOD'S

THE LAST WORD IN DAIRY CONSTRUCTION AND SANITATION

THIS view shows HOOD'S SYSTEM of Perfect Pasteurization. The construction is of white tiled walls and ceiling, and cement floors. No angles in the room, everything rounded to facilitate cleaning. Flooded with sunlight. Whole process viewed through glass windows in steel frames.

Milk flows into heater in center at a temperature of 45° F. and is instantly heated to 145° F. This temperature is controlled automatically by an electric thermostat. Flows to holding device at left into eight porcelain compartments. Temperature is recorded as milk leaves these compartments after being held for thirty minutes at 145° F. Milk flows onto cooler at right. Cold water through top sections, and brine through lower. Milk is cooled in 10 seconds to 38° F. Flows by gravity into filling machines. All piping in short sections and is cleaned by boiling water, strong alkali and sterilized with steam.

H. P. HOOD & SONS, Dairy Experts
